

PROVISIONAL VOTING INFORMATION

You are being given a provisional ballot today because you are unable to list your driver's license number on your voter registration application or because, as a first-time voter who registered by mail, you are unable to provide the poll workers with acceptable proof of residence as required by Wisconsin and federal law. Your provisional ballot number is PV#_____.

Your provisional ballot will not count unless you provide the poll workers with the required information before the polling place closes at 8:00 pm tonight, or you provide the required information to the municipal clerk by 4:00 pm tomorrow.

If you need to provide your driver's license number, you may contact the municipal clerk using the information below no later than 4:00 pm tomorrow.

If you need to show proof of residence, you must provide one of the following forms:

Acceptable Forms of Proof of Residence
A current and valid Wisconsin driver's license	A current and valid Wisconsin identification card
Any other official ID card or license issued by a Wisconsin governmental body	An ID card with your photo issued by an employer during the normal course of business (not including a business card)
A real estate tax bill or receipt (for the current year of year before election)	A utility bill for a period starting 90 days before election
A bank statement or current paycheck	A government check or document
Forms must contain a current and complete name , including both first and last name; and a current and complete residential address , including a numbered street address, if any, and the name of the municipality . If form has an expiration date, it must be valid on election day.

You may check whether your ballot was counted by contacting the municipal clerk.

Municipal Clerk Contact information:

(Name of municipal clerk)

(Telephone number)

(Address)

(Fax number)

(Municipality, state, zip code)

(E-mail address)

You may also check the State Elections Board website at: <http://elections.state.wi.us>, or contact the State Elections Board at 866-VOTEWIS (868-3947)

General Information for Provisional Voting

Who is entitled to a provisional ballot?

A qualified elector registering to vote at a polling place on election day who has been issued a current and valid Wisconsin driver's license, but does not list the driver's license number on the registration application, is entitled to receive a provisional ballot.

The driver's license number must be provided before a provisional ballot will be counted.

A person who registered to vote by mail, but did not provide an identifying document establishing proof of residence at the time of submitting the registration form, and who is unable to provide the required proof of residence at the polling place is entitled to receive a provisional ballot.

An acceptable form of proof of residence must be submitted before a provisional ballot will be counted.

What documents can be provided as proof of residence?

Acceptable proof of residence is described in the chart on the other side of this document.

When can a provisional voter provide the required information?

On Election Day, a provisional voter may provide the required information to the poll workers at the polling place anytime before the polls close at 8:00 pm.

If a provisional voter is not able to provide the required information at the polling place on Election Day, the voter must provide the required information to the municipal clerk by 4:00 pm on the day following election day.

NOTE: Provisional ballots will NOT be issued when a voter is at the wrong polling place or when a person is attempting to register in-person at the polling place and does not provide the required proof of residence.